Merit badges: Joe Scirica, Leon Carpenter, David Ludwig, Bob Sullivan.

Year pins: David Ludwig, Joe Scirica, John Erickson, Tom Denman, Leo Olson, Craig Crossman, Frank Berrier, Bradley Thompson, and John Olson.

Committeemen who have served four years were Paul Crossman, Ed Ludwig, Leon Carpenter. Three-year pins were given to Homer Foster and Lee Polick. Two-year pins to Joe Scirica and Harvey Cas-son. Year pins were given to Frank Berrier, Ralph Engstrom, Jack Berry, Frank Clark, Vic Matulich, and Mike Rogow.

Films of the Silver Moccasin and the Explorer Snow Trip, were also on the program. The Boy Scouts also had a snow trip recently to Big Bear with 25 boys attending.

In charge of the boys were Joe Scirica, Scoutmaster, Lee Polick, Paul Crossman, William Olson, Harvey Casson, Homer Foster, and Jack Berry, and Spider Tidland.

Cub Pack 877-C

The Palos Verdes Country Club was the setting recently for Pack 877-C's annual father and son Blue and Gold Dinner with a turnout of 122.

Each Den's able decorations were original and gay; consisting of tissue paper flowers, simulated birthday cakes, egg-shell and clothes-pin figures; and blue and yellow balloons and place mats.

Chairman Jim Paullin presented Cubmaster George Stefan with a plaque for the longest continuous service as a Cubmaster in the Los Angeles area.

Principal speaker was Robert J. Horton, South Bay District Scout executive, who told of his 25 years of scouting and what it had meant to him. Joe Berg, magician, performed magic tricks

Boy Scout Troop 219

The first camping trip of the season was held recently by members of Boy Scout Troop 219, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, as they traveled to Camp Firestone.

The trip was taken to give the boys a chance to earn their merit badges in camping, hiking, cooking, fire building, and observation.

There still are vacancies in the troop. Interested persons

Tools Taken Here

Steel tapes and tools, valued at $50 were stolen from a truck parked at 190th St. and Inglewood Ave.

F. Bremmer, who reported the theft Tuesday, told officers the truck was parked at the construction site of a new super market.
